Religion: A Discovery In Comics

Synopsis

A humorous yet substantive introduction to the world's religions and their concepts. Explaining the five major religions and modern spirituality in clear, colorful chapters, this illustrated primer is a great way to introduce a complex topic. In her easily accessible style, Margreet de Heer explores religious history and practices in an unbiased way and with a dash of humor, and makes it approachable for those with little knowledge of the subject. It offers a fresh look from different perspectives on the phenomenon of religion; the backgrounds and history of Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Hinduism, and Buddhism; and makes the point that religion is something that should unite us, not drive us apart.

Customer Reviews

A delightful piece of art and information all in one. I picked this up on a whim off the library graphic novel shelf. So glad I did. It is informative, intelligent, humorous, accurate, well-researched, and delightfully illustrated. Margreet de Heer is one talented author, even if she is not well known or lauded yet. I am now purchasing this book so that I can own it myself. It'll become a coffee table piece, one that I hope my children (13+) and friends will pick up and be enlightened by. I do not know the author and am NOT being paid or coerced for this review.

Awesome, unbiased look at the world's religions. A sorely needed example of someone willing to examine their beliefs and the basis for those beliefs that can only help us unite and understand each other. I am so happy to have found someone courageous enough to tackle these subjects!!!

How did this get in the book--Mahabharata bhavagad Gita is a major core of Buddhism?
