Customer Reviews

My son is 9 and says it gives great ideas, but it's suitable for children that lives in suburban area. It does not have great ideas for children who live in urban areas or inner city. ex: make a garden for dried herbs or pick worms and sale them to fishermen. The ideas are mostly for summer time. The pictures are dated. It gives good ideas on managment and making money grow.

Some of the ideas in this book are not feasible for most kids because they are dangerous or would require a work permit. For example, painting houses and rototilling just aren't for kids, or even teens. Kids aren't miniature adults. Some of the ideas felt like filler to extend the ideas.

This book is not only great for kids, but also for the whole family, it's full of wonderful ideas and great advice, the chapter on "Financing your own business" was excellent.

I really loved this book. I thought it was awesome and I could make money even though I am only 12.
