Customer Reviews

In even just glancing through this book, I found that it was a fantastic resource for so much. As an Activity Days leader in my ward, I will be using many of the activities in the book with my girls. I noticed that many of them were also geared toward younger children, making this book also a fantastic resource for my Sunbeams class. I will be using this book for ideas at home, and at church both.

Fabulous book with so many wonderful ideas for young and older children to not only help them get ready for conference but also to help them remember conference in the future; recipes to use all year round; and lesson ideas on many topics for the whole family. So worth the "low" price of $3.99!!!

So many great ideas to use, apply, and prepare for General Conference with your family! Very well done. I love this book!
