Customer Reviews

I have now read three books by Mary Baxter ("Divine Revelation Of Hell" & "Divine Revelation Of The Spirit Realm") and I have personally found no reason whatsoever to question the veracity of her accounts of Heaven, Hell or the Spirit Realm. To the very best of my knowledge everything in her books appears to be in accordance with Scripture. I found her account of her 'journey' to Heaven to be very thought provoking indeed. It certainly challenged me. Some reviewers here have cast doubts on the authenticity of Mary Baxter's stories. Some have stated quite correctly that 'Satan often appears as an angel of light'. These are quite valid concerns and everyone should prayerfully consider each story on its own merits and weigh it up against what the Bible really teaches. What strikes me quite forcibly about all three of Mary Baxter's books is that they all promote the Gospel and the absolute necessity and importance of Salvation through Jesus Christ. Considerable emphasis is always placed upon repentance and the redeeming power of the Blood of Jesus. The very message at the heart of the Gospels. If Satan is promoting the message of Salvation and the only Way of avoiding an eternity in his own kingdom of darkness; whilst at the same time exposing the devil and his works for what they are, then surely it is his methodology that needs to be looked at and not that of Mary Baxter. In every possible context and occasion Mary Baxter points the reader to Jesus Christ the Messiah and the Bible. At the end of the day, it is for every reader to draw his/her own conclusion. These books are a joy to read and so, so easy to understand. It is possible to read each in a day, even though they each contain a substantial amount of information. I highly recommend this and her other books.

If you really do believe that God is real, that the Bible is His word to us, then you cannot ignore that Hell is real also. Christ himself told of the horrible reality of it, and gave dire warnings to those who ignore it. Every true believer should have such a heart for the lost as does Mrs. Baxter, and every unbeliever should have the visions of hell that the Lord gave her. If you don't believe anyway, you wouldn't even if one came from the dead to tell you, but if you do, then you must accept that her visions were from God and believe. I plan to order this book again and again and give it to as many people as I can and beg them to read it. Nothing we do to bring people to Christ costs too much, takes too much time, or isn't worth the effort. This book is a divine revelation indeed and should be utilized in winning the lost as often as possible.

Actually, I wanted to order the book she wrote on Hell, but I accidentally (is anything really?) on Heaven, and the Holy Spirit just embraced me. The question is, can we say it is just false, a fairy tale, a facade, a dreamer who wrote this Book on Heaven, it is dedicated in the front pages to God, Jesus and Holy Spirit, anyone who can do that must have their HEART and SPIRIT in the write place, when was the last time You went to a bookstore and see such a dedication.... I wish my life was so dedicated that I COULD HAVE experienced this with God. I know HE is real and alive, JESUS is real and alive, the HOLY SPIRIT is real and alive.... and although I have not finished reading all of her book, I can hardly put it down but I have responsibilities, a child who needs me, a single parent, of a 3 year old who I am his example. My Mother passed away over 4 years ago, I think of her at this novel, all the tragic in our lives is not all for nothing, for every person learns life is hard and I am Thankful that I have a Father who helps me and lifts me up..... through the Storms of Life.

This book was brought to my attention by a divine miracle. It was the end of 1999. Then I lived in London, UK. I had been reading a lot of books and articles which either dismissed the reality of hell or at best, rationalised it. One of such books was "Conversations With God : An Uncommon Dialogue". In fact, I was already sold, intellectually, on the idea that hell did not exist. Then it happened. Seemingly out of the blues, a friend of mine called me to say that she just bought a book which I just had to read. Prior to this, I never discussed my 'convictions' about the 'figurative' nature of hell with her, because she is a Christian. However, I agreed to read the book but never asked again. As if by divine appointment, she persisted. I then took the book and read it. The effect? Awesome! Thank the Lord Jesus for this book and for my friend, Joy, whom God used, I was otherwise a sure candidate for hell fire.

Smarten up folks! Stop listening to those meatheads with degrees who claim evolution is how it happened. This is a beautiful book that lets you peek over Mary's shoulder on her sneak peek of Heaven. Better than a Near Death Experience (NDE); and all according to Scripture; just as you knew heaven would be. Mary K. Baxter takes us along with her from the time the Lord Jesus allows her to enter the "Pearly Gates" to her awesome awareness that she is standing and watching God the Father actually dispatching Angels to answer prayers from his people. Mary carries the message that all "heartfelt" prayers and tears are heard and "captured". Why couldn't the Lord Jesus commission Mary to tell this story for the benefit of His Saints in these "end times".
