Customer Reviews

My daughters sense of style is as wild and exciting as she is. Pink. More pink. Glitter. Patterns. Too many patterns. Must mix all the patterns. Add more pink. Then finish with every piece of jewelry she owns and a pair of sunglasses. So it's safe to say that "Mary Had A Little Glam" hit a soft spot in our hearts. Tammi Sauer gives us her stylish take on a favorite childhood nursery rhyme and the result is delightful! When Mary's bold fashions follow her to school one day, she is shocked and appalled to see her bland classmates. Luckily, she is happy to spread her love for couture. Everyone seems pleased with their new look...until they hit the playground. How will they be able to play in their new garb? You'll have to read to find out. Such a cute ending!! I received this book for free in exchange for my honest opinions. I was in no way compensated for this review. My opinions are honest and my own.

I am a PreK Teacher & I can't wait to read & reread it to my kids. I secretly want my parents to read it too to help them understand their children are on,y young for a short while. Working hard for their education is much more important than their outer appearance. •••••

Mary is such a fun character and a great role model. This girl won't let achieving her goal get in the way of having fun. Includes rollicking rhyme. The fancy illustrations are a perfect fit for this fancy fashionista. The ending is delightful.

I love the whole new story to the nursery rhyme, MARY HAD A LITTLE LAMB'. Clever and funny and just the right amount of glam!Written by Tammi Sauer, illustrated by Vanessa Brantley-Newton Published by Sterling Books..

I wish I knew how Tammi Sauer can keep coming up with sassy, sweet, fun-to-read and fun-to-read-aloud stories like MARY HAD A LITTLE GLAM. She is a picture book whisperer.
